

Hello.

My name is Renee. An unintended pregnancy can be scary and feel like a big obstacle in a very lonely space. I want to walk alongside women who may feel like they must carry the weight of it by themselves. To listen well and surround someone with care and prayer is an honor.

